

Katja Knežević is a Brussels-based Croatian poet and short story writer. She holds a Master's degree in English literature and French translation studies. In 2012 she was awarded the first prize at the Sea of Words competition with the short story "Invisible mother". In 2014 she won the Croatian national award for young poets with the manuscript "Birches made of glass". The collection was then published in April 2015.

She writes in both Croatian and English and is mostly interested in exploring themes of identity, compromise and memory.

Katja Knežević, hrvatska pjesnikinja s briselskom adresom, piše poeziju i kratke priče. Diplomirala je engleski jezik i književnost i francuski jezik i književnost na Filozofskom fakultetu u Zagrebu. Godine 2012. osvojila je prvu nagradu na natječaju Sea of Words za priču "Nevidljiva majka". Godine 2014. osvojila je nagradu "Goran za mlade pjesnike" za rukopis "Staklene breze". Zbirka je potom objavljena u travnju 2015.

Piše na hrvatskom i engleskom jeziku, a najviše je privlače teme identiteta, kompromisa i pamćenja.